sample

Contents

Primary 5

Unit	Topic	Grammar Focus	Text Type	Page
1	All about manners	• Adverbs of manner • Modals: should / shouldn't	rules	2
2	Getting along with people	• Verbs / Adjectives + Prepositions • Adverbs of degree	personal letters	6
3	Who is that?	• Prepositions: in / with • Relative pronouns: who	descriptions	10
Quiz 1 (Units 1–3)				14
4	Treasure hunting	• Question words: Whose • Possessive pronouns	notes	16
5	Travelling around	• Present perfect tense 1 • Present perfect tense 2: already / just / yet	conversations	20
6	Special memories	• Present perfect tense 3: ever / never / once / twice • Present perfect tense vs Simple past tense	autobiographies	24
Quiz 2 (Units 4–6)				28
7	Get well soon!	• Talking about illnesses and injuries • Indirect speech • Object pronouns	conversations / diary entries	30
8	Things I want to do	• Question words: How long • Present perfect tense 4: since / for • Simple past tense: ago / in	presentations	34
9	Do-it-yourself	• made of / used for • Verbs + To-infinitives • Connectives: before / after / until	procedures	38
Quiz 3 (Units 7–9)				42
10	From here to there	• Question words: How far / How long • Connectives: Although / but	text messages	44
11	Be careful!	• Past continuous tense • Connectives: while	recounts	48
12	All about crimes	• Connectives: when • Connectives: while / when • Indefinite pronouns: anyone / anything	news articles	52
Quiz 4 (Units 10–12)				56
Assessment (Units 1–12)				58

Pan Pacific Loyds

1 All about manners

sample

Video

Adverbs of manner

Bruce and Emma arrive on Treasure Island.

We use adverbs to describe verbs.
Sara speaks softly.

We usually put adverbs after verbs.
Bruce waits patiently.

Change an adjective to an adverb by adding '-ly'.
polite → politely rude → rudely

If the adjective ends with '-y', change '-y' to '-ily'.
happy → happily noisy → noisily

There are words that do not follow the '-ly' / '-ily' rules.
good → well
early → early late → late

A. Sara is telling the children what they do in different months on Treasure Island. Draw an arrow to point to the verb that the adverb describes.

e.g. In January, we think carefully about what we should do for the whole year.

1. In March, we dance happily to welcome Spring.
2. In May, we train hard to prepare for the treasure hunt.
3. In July, we dive deeply in the ocean to look for treasure.
4. In August, we stay up late because the sun sets around midnight.
5. In September, we harvest all the crops and store them neatly in the barn.
6. In December, we have a feast and play the music loudly.

Pan Lloyas

sample

Grammar in Context

E. Bruce and Emma have learnt some rules for being in a temple and on a farm. Complete the rules with 'should' or 'should not' and the correct form of the given words.

rules

Treasure Island Temple

Rules

loud

patient

quiet

1. You _____ (wash) your face before you come in.
2. You _____ (not / talk) _____ .
3. You _____ (not / run) in the temple.
4. You _____ (pray) _____ .
5. You _____ (not / bring) any food into the temple.
6. You _____ (wait) for the priest _____ .
7. You _____ (sit) with your family and friends.

Treasure Island Farm

Rules

careful careless gentle

1. You _____ (not / scare) the animals.
2. You _____ (pat) the animals _____ .
3. You _____ (not / stand) behind cows or horses.
4. You _____ (not / ride) on the animals _____ .
5. You _____ (treat) the animals with respect.
6. You _____ (not / chase) the animals.
7. You _____ (listen) to your tour guide _____ .

Grammar Clinic

Put a tick next to the correct sentence and a cross next to the wrong one.

Ⓐ The natives work hardly every day. ☐ Ⓑ The natives work hard every day. ☐

Quiz 1 (Units 1–3)

sample

A. Circle the correct answers. (10 marks)

1. The girls are dancing happy happily on the stage.
2. We should kept keep quiet in the library.
3. Grandma is walking down the stairs careful carefully.
4. People are cheering loud loudly at the game.
5. He shouldn't throw throws litter on the street.
6. I am trying hard hardly to follow the dance steps.
7. She should do does more exercise to stay healthy.
8. Emily shouldn't shout shouts at her dad.
9. Daniel plays basketball poor poorly.
10. You should talk talks to your teachers about your homework.

B. Rewrite the following sentences using 'who'. (10 marks)

e.g. Cyrus is a boy. He is playing chess.
Cyrus is the boy who is playing chess.

1. Kathy is a girl. She has a dog.

_____

2. Mr Johnston is a teacher. He teaches Maths.

_____

3. Kate is a girl. She takes care of people.

_____

4. Samson is a boy. He is afraid of spiders.

_____

5. Ginny is a girl. She is wearing a pair of jeans.

_____

Pan Lloyds

Assessment (Units 1–12)

sample

A. Circle the correct answers. (26 marks)

1. Martin's dog passed away. He was so a bit a little sad that he could not stop crying.
2. Carl is discussing the English project to of with his teammates.
3. Janet is the girl in on with the crystal bracelet.
4. Luke is the young man in the glasses gloves round face.
5. Kelly is the girl when who what is offering her seat to the old woman.
6. Henry forgot his coloured pencils at home. He wanted to borrow her mine our.
7. These backpacks belong to Freddy and John. They are his yours theirs.
8. Little John has just yet already cried. His eyes are still red.
9. The books are due tomorrow. Have you returned them just yet already?
10. How long How tall How far does it take to get there by MTR? Ten minutes.
11. How far How much How many times have you donated to charity? Three times.
12. I have taken part in a charity walk one ones once.
13. This spoon is used to used for made of scooping ice cream into bowls.

B. Rewrite the sentences using indirect speech. (18 marks)

1. Miss Chan said to the class, 'Keep quiet.'

_____

2. Mum said to Sarah, 'Don't leave the tap on.'

_____

3. Peter said to Ivan, 'Don't wear my sunglasses.'

_____

Pan Lloyds