First conditional sentences

Emma and Bruce arrived on Legend Island. They are meeting with Chase and Faye, the famous superhero duo.

We use 'If … will …' to talk about things that have a good chance of happening.

Pattern 1 – start the sentence with 'if'

- future condition (simple present)
- This has to happen first.

If I become a photographer,
I will take many photos.

- future result (future tense)
- Then this will happen.

Pattern 2 – put 'if' in the middle

- future result (future tense)
- This will happen.

I will travel the world
if I become a flight attendant.

- future condition (simple present)
- If this happens first.

A. Bruce and Emma are at Chase's school. They are talking to some of the students. Underline the if-clauses in the sentences.

e.g. If I become a reporter, I will interview Chase and Faye.

1. Davy will catch all the bad people if he becomes a policeman.
2. Chase will save you if you are in danger.
3. If there is a typhoon, I will stay at home.
4. The doctor will give me some medicine if I am sick.
5. I will not pass next week's exam if I do not study hard.
