Making Friends

By Bonnie Wood

Do you find it hard to make friends? Will you go red in the face when you meet new friends? Don't worry! Here are some tips for you. I am sure that you can get along well with your new friends.

1. Laugh more: Do you know that laughing has magic? If your friends say something funny, just show that you are interested in it by laughing. It can also show that you have a good sense of humour.
2. Praise your friends: Notice something you like about your friends, for example their hairstyle or clothes. Tell them about it. Don't make something up. Just find something that you honestly like and your friends will be happy about it.
3. Listen to others patiently: When your friends talk to you, listen to them patiently. Pay attention to them by making eye contact. They will think that you respect them and they will respect you as well.
4. Join some clubs: Do you have any clubs at school? Just join some clubs you are interested in. You will find a lot of friends with the same hobbies as you. But be careful of online clubs. There may be bad people who will take the chance to cheat you.
5. Volunteer: It is good to help others. You can join activities like visiting a home for the elderly and running a charity show. During the activities, you can meet other volunteers. Most of them are nice and helpful. You will find them easy to get along with.

Believe me, these are really helpful tips. I have shared them with my neighbours and students. They all tell me that they are no longer afraid of making friends. Take a step forward and you will find that your circle will grow bigger and bigger.

23. In paragraph 1, 'go red in the face' means that you are _____.
A. angry B. shy
C. hot D. excited
24. Which of the following is TRUE about praising your friends?
A. Tell your friends what you dislike.
B. Tell your friends what you like about yourself.
C. Tell lies to your friends.
D. Tell the truth to your friends.
25. Which is NOT a good way to make friends?
A. Help people with other volunteers.
B. Share your hobbies with others.
C. Laugh at your friends.
D. Tell your friends what you like about them.
26. Which activity is NOT suggested by the writer to make friends?
A. Join a charity walk.
B. Join an online club.
C. Join a computer club.
D. Visit an orphan.
27. Who writes this article?
A. A student B. A teacher
C. A patient D. A doctor
28. Matthew's classmates, Jack and Wilson, have problems about making friends. Matthew is writing each of them a message. Read the article on P.3 and help Matthew finish the messages by using only ONE word for each blank. Make sure your answers are grammatically correct.

Jack,

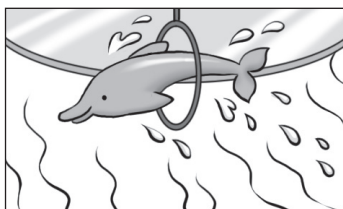

When you listen to your friends, you have to (i) _____ at them in a friendly manner. They will know that you respect them...

Hi, Wilson. You can start talking with your friends by telling them what you like about them. But be (ii) _____. Say what you really think. They will be glad...

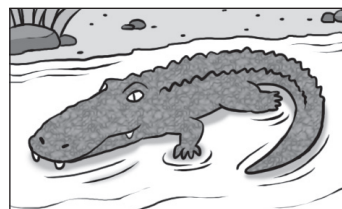

35. When did Matthew join these activities in Summer Nature Fun? Match the dates with the pictures. Write A, B, C, D, E, F or G in the boxes on the answer booklet.
